MANY EXCURSIONISTS.

More Than 2,000 Presbyterians Spent the Day at Buckroe.

One of the largest excursions of the season left over the Chesapeake and Ohio yesterday for Buckroe. It was a union outing of the Presbyterian churches in Richmond and Manchester, and 2,165 persons took advantage of the trip.

Four sections were sent down, thirty-nine cars all told. The last section returned before 10 o'clock.

The day was fine, and when the excursionals returned last night they were greatly pleased with events of the day.

No accident marred the annual trip.

Rapidly Filling Graves May Pollute Water-The Report Shows Great Progress.

The annual reports of the superintendent of the City Water Works for the year ending December 31, 1903, long delayed in the hands of the printer, has finally been received and distributed, and it is an interesting documnt to those who care for the prosperity and advancement of the city.

The report shows in detail the vast improvements which have been made in the Water Department during the year in the way of enlarged water mains, additional of the progress made upon the settling basin now in the course of construction. Mr. Bolling makes the following im-portant recommendation concerning the

PITCHES INTO TUB OF WATER: CHILD NEARLY DROWNED

Bernard Holmes, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holmes, of Fulton Street, Fulton, came near being drowned in a tub of water yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Holmes, mother of the child, was at the time out of the louise and left the child with its grandmother, who was otherwise employed when the accident occurred. The child was playing on the floor near a tub of water and managed, to get to the tub and draw itself up on the side. There he stood playing in the water with hish glee, when he lost his balance and fell head first into the water. The splash attracted the attention of the grandmother, who took the cylid out put not before he had swallowed quite a good deal of the water. Dr. George E. Barkefale was hastly summoned, and after a short while got the youthful patient out of danger.

Benvers is now under indictment, though there is small chance that he will be tried before the snow comes again. First Assistant Postmuster-General Wynne made the adjustment this year.

master-General Wynne made the adjustment this year.

"We assumed that the clerks in the postoffices of the country should work eight hours a day," said Mr. Wynne today. "Where the reports showed that they were working more than that we other gave extra clerical force or increased the salaries of those now employed. Where it was shown that the clerks were not working as much as eight hours, we asked the postmuster to show cause why the force ishould not be reduced. This was discovered in the offices in Chicago and St. Louis. It is a poor rule that will not work both ways."
